PROFILE

I am currently working as an assessment trainee with Poonawalla Fincorp Limited in their corporate legal team since July 2022 in the Non-banking finance space. I overlook and vet various contracts, finance documents, arrangements and business initiatives undertaken by the company and firmly advocate the underlying interests of the company at various levels including before the counter party's business and legal frontier. I am interested in corporate, banking & finance law and would like to explore more opportunities in the corporate arena.
